Our School Vision

Our vision at All Hallows is to form happy, successful students who reach their full potential and leave the school with integrity and moral purpose. We want a whole school experience that everyone would wish for their own children. We put our students at the heart of everything we do, guided by the truth and love of Christ.

1. Policy Statement

The aims of our First Aid Policy are to:

- Ensure the health and safety of all staff, pupils and visitors;
- Ensure that staff and governors are aware of their responsibilities with regards to health and safety in relation to first aid;
- Provide a framework for responding to an incident and recording and reporting the outcomes.

2. Legislation & Guidance

This policy is based on advice from the Department for Education on First Aid in Schools and Health and Safety in Schools, Statutory framework for the Early Years foundation stage and the following legislation:

- The Health and Safety (First Aid) Regulations 1981, which state that employers must provide adequate and appropriate equipment and facilities to enable first aid to be administered to employees, and qualified first aid personnel;
- The Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999, which require employers to carry out risk assessments, make arrangements to implement necessary measures, and arrange for appropriate information and training;
- The Reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations (RIDDOR) 2013, which state that some accidents must be reported to the Health and Safety Executive (HSE), and set out the timeframe for this and how long records of such accidents must be kept;
- Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1979, which set out rules on the retention of accident records;
- The School Premises (England) Regulations 2012, which require that suitable space is provided to cater for the medical and therapy needs of pupils.

3. Roles & Responsibilities

3.1 Appointed person(s) and First Aiders

All Hallows Catholic School must have a minimum of one qualified First Aider and one designated 'appointed person' to take charge of first aid matters in their absence. Schools with early years provision must ensure their appointed person(s) and/or First Aiders are appropriately trained paediatric First Aiders as outlined within the Statutory framework for the early years foundation stage. Appointed person(s) and First Aiders are responsible for:

- Taking charge when someone is injured or becomes ill;
- Ensuring there is an adequate supply of medical materials in first aid kits, and replenishing the contents of these kits;
- Ensuring that an ambulance or other professional medical help is summoned when appropriate;
- Ensuring appropriate communication protocols are followed depending on the incident or accident.

First Aiders are trained and qualified to carry out the role (see section 7) and are responsible for:

- Acting as First Responders to any incidents; they will assess the situation where there is an injured or ill person, and provide immediate and appropriate treatment;
- Sending injured/unwell individual home to recover, where necessary;

- Complete an accident report on the same day, or as soon as is reasonably practicable, after an incident;
- Advising of any first aid equipment used that needs to be replenished
- Keeping their contact details up to date.

All Hallows Catholic School will ensure that the names of their First Aiders are displayed prominently around their school.

3.2 All Hallows Catholic School and the Governing Body Committee

All Hallows Catholic School has ultimate responsibility for health and safety matters its schools, but delegates responsibility for the strategic management of such matters to the School's responsible Governing Body Committee.

The responsible Governing Body Committee delegates operational matters and day-to-day tasks to the Headteacher and staff members.

3.3 The Headteacher

The Headteacher is responsible for the implementation of this policy at their School, including:

- Ensuring that an appropriate number of trained first aid personnel are present in the school at all times;
- Ensuring that First Aiders have an appropriate qualification, keep training up to date and remain competent to perform their role;
- Ensuring all staff are aware of first aid procedures;
- Ensuring appropriate risk assessments are completed and appropriate measures are put in place;
- Undertaking, or ensuring that managers undertake, risk assessments, as appropriate, and that appropriate measures are put in place;
- Ensuring that adequate space is available for catering to the medical needs of pupils;
- Reporting specified incidents to the Governing Body and HSE when necessary (see section 6).

3.4 Staff

School staff are responsible for:

- Ensuring they follow first aid procedures;
- Ensuring they know who the First Aiders in School are;
- Completing accident reports for all incidents they attend to where a First Aider is not called;
- Informing the Headteacher or their manager of any specific health conditions or first aid needs.

4. First Aid Procedures

4.1 In-school procedures

In the event of an accident resulting in injury or an individual becoming unwell:

- The closest member of staff present will assess the seriousness of the injury/sickness and seek the assistance of a qualified First Aider, if appropriate, who will provide the required first aid treatment;

- The First Aider, if called, will assess the injury/condition and decide if further assistance is needed from a colleague or the emergency services. They will remain on scene until help arrives;
- The First Aider will also decide whether the injured person should be moved or placed in a recovery position;
- If the First Aider judges that an individual is too unwell to remain in school, the emergency contacts for the individual as will be contacted and where this is a pupil, this contact will be asked to collect the pupil. Upon their arrival, the First Aider will recommend next steps to the individual;
- If emergency services are called, the Headteacher or if not available the School administration team will contact parents immediately;
- The relevant member of staff will complete an accident report form on the same day or as soon as is reasonably practical after an incident resulting in an injury.

4.2 Off-site procedures

When taking pupils off School premises, School staff will ensure they always have the following:

- A mobile phone;
- A portable first aid kit;
- Information about the specific medical needs of pupils;
- Access to parents' contact details.

Risk assessments will be completed and signed off by the lead member of School staff prior to any educational visit that necessitates taking pupils off School premises.

There will always be at least one First Aider with a current first aid certificate on all school trips and visits.

5. First Aid Equipment

The schools portable Automated External Defibrillators (AEDs) is located in the staff room.

First Aid room is located behind Front Office.

A typical first aid kit at All Hallows Catholic School will include the following:

6. Record-Keeping & Reporting

6.1 First Aid & Accident Record Book

- A minor accident form will be completed if the injury needs only very minor first aid - a wipe, cold compress, plaster or ice pack for a short time;
- An Accident/Near Miss/Violence at Work Reporting Form will be completed by the relevant member of staff on the same day or as soon as possible after a major incident resulting in an injury;
- As much detail as possible should be supplied when reporting an accident;
- A copy of the accident report will also be added to the pupil's educational record by the school administrative team;
- Records held in the first aid and accident book will be retained by the school for a minimum of 3 years, in accordance with regulation 25 of the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1979, an Accident/Near Miss/Violence at Work Reporting Form will be kept until the child is 21 years old.

6.2 Reporting to the HSE

The Headteacher will keep a record of any accident which results in a reportable injury, disease, or dangerous occurrence as defined in the RIDDOR 2013 legislation (regulations 4, 5, 6 and 7).

The Headteacher will report these to both the Governing Body and the Health and Safety Executive as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any event within 10 days of the incident.

Reportable injuries, diseases or dangerous occurrences include:

- Death;
- Specified injuries, which are:
 - Fractures, other than to fingers, thumbs and toes;
 - Amputations;
 - Any injury likely to lead to permanent loss of sight or reduction in sight;

 - Serious burns (including scalding);
 - Any scalping requiring hospital treatment;
 - Any loss of consciousness caused by head injury or asphyxia;
 - Any other injury arising from working in an enclosed space which leads to hypothermia or heat-induced illness, or requires resuscitation or admittance to hospital for more than 24 hours.
- Injuries where an employee is away from work or unable to perform their normal work duties for more than 7 consecutive days (not including the day of the incident);
- Where an accident leads to someone being taken to hospital;
- Near-miss events that do not result in an injury, but could have done. Examples of near-miss events relevant to schools include, but are not limited to:
 - The collapse or failure of load-bearing parts of lifts and lifting equipment;
 - The accidental release of a biological agent likely to cause severe human illness;
 - The accidental release or escape of any substance that may cause a serious injury or damage to health;
 - An electrical short circuit or overload causing a fire or explosion.

Information on how to make a RIDDOR report is available to view here.

6.3 Notifying parents

A member of staff will inform parents of any accident or injury sustained by a pupil of All Hallows Catholic School, and any first aid treatment given, on the same day, or as soon as reasonably practicable.

6.4 Reporting to Ofsted and child protection agencies

The Headteacher and the Governing Body will notify Ofsted of any serious accident, illness or injury to, or death of, a pupil while in their school's care. This will happen as soon as is reasonably practicable, and no later than 14 days after the incident.

The Headteacher will also notify local authority child protection agencies (MASH team) of any serious accident or injury to, or the death of, a pupil while in the school's care.

7. Training

All school staff All Hallows Catholic School are able to undertake first aid training if they would like to.

All First Aiders must have completed a training course, and must hold a valid certificate of competence to show this. All Hallows Catholic School will keep a register of all trained First Aiders, what training they have received and when this is valid until.

Staff are encouraged to renew their first aid training when it is no longer valid.

At all times, at least 1 staff member at All Hallows Catholic School will have a current first aid certificate which is updated at least every 3 years.

8. Monitoring Arrangements

This policy will be reviewed by All Hallows Catholic School every 3 years. At every review, the policy will be approved by the responsible Governing Body Committee.
